Weil's 2024 Litigation Trends Report

April 09, 2024

On behalf of Weil's global Litigation Department, we are pleased to introduce our 2024 Litigation Trends Report.

As in our prior editions, our partners and practices across the Litigation Department offer their views on what to expect and plan for in the coming year. We have designed this as a reference tool and a starting point for more substantive conversations and analysis.

Weil's Litigation partners assess important developments that could impact our clients in the coming year.

If you would like to learn more about a topic, please reach out to your usual contact at the Firm or to any of the Department or Practice Group Leaders listed on the inside-front cover.

We look forward to partnering with you this year.
